PERMIT APPLICATION FORM INSTRUCTIONS

The following instructions pertain to the standard permit form 3-200 that must be completed as an application for a U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS) or CITES permit. The General Permit Procedures in 50 CFR 13 address the permitting process. For simplification, all licenses, permits, registrations, and certificates will be referred to as a permit.

- Complete all appropriate blocks/lines/questions in Sections A, OR B, and C on page 1, plus the attached pages of this application. Print clearly or type in the information. Applications will not be considered complete without these pages. An incomplete application may cause delays in processing or may be returned to the applicant.
- Sign the application in blue ink and send the original to the address at the top of the application. Faxes or copies of the original signature will not be accepted.
- Please plan ahead. Allow at least 90 days for your application to be processed (50 CFR 13.11). However, due to variations in the size, complexity and impacts of Habitat Conservation Plans, some applications for an Incidental Take permit may take up to 12 months to process. Applications are processed in the order they are received.
- Additional forms and instructions, plus copies of the FWS permit regulations, are available from the FWS permit web site at <http://permits.fws.gov/>.

Most of the application form is self-explanatory, but the following provides some assistance for completing the form.

COMPLETE EITHER SECTION A. OR SECTION B. :

- Section A. "Complete if applying as an individual" - Enter the complete name of the responsible individual who will be the permittee if a permit is issued. Enter personal information that identifies the applicant. All blocks must be completed. If you are applying on behalf of a client, the personal information must pertain to the client; and a notarized document evidencing power of attorney must be included with the application.
- Section B. "Complete if applying as a business, corporation, public agency, or institution" - Enter the complete name and address of the business, corporation, public agency or institution that will be the permittee if a permit is issued. Give a brief description of the type of business the applicant is engaged in, the name and phone number of the person in charge (i.e., principal officer), and if the company is incorporated, the State in which it is incorporated.

ALL APPLICANTS COMPLETE SECTION C. :

If "yes," list the State, Federal or foreign countries involved and type of document required. Include a copy of these documents with the application. If you have applied for the documents, check the "have applied" box and list the State, Federal or foreign countries involved and type of documents required. If the proposed activity is not regulated, check "not required."
- Section C.3 "Enclose check or money order (if applicable)" You must enclose an application processing fee unless you are fee exempt. Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) – Notice

For organizations, businesses, or individuals operating as a business (i.e., permittees not covered by the Privacy Act), we request that you identify any information that should be considered privileged and confidential business information to allow the Service to meet its responsibilities under FOIA. Confidential business information must be clearly marked "Business Confidential" at the top of the letter or page and each succeeding page and must be accompanied by a non-confidential summary of the confidential information. The non-confidential summary and remaining documents may be made available to the public under FOIA [43 CFR 2.13(c)(4), 43 CFR 2.15(d)(1)(i)].

Application Processing Fee

The fee to process this application for an Incidental Take permit is $100. This fee applies to new permit applications and to renewals of existing valid permits. The fee to process a significant amendment to an existing valid Incidental Take permit is $50. Significant amendments are those that pertain to the purpose and conditions of the permit, and that are not purely administrative. Checks should be made payable to "U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service." The application processing fee is assessed to partially cover the cost of processing a request for a permit, and does not guarantee the issuance of a permit. The fee will not be refunded under any circumstances. However, we may return your check to you if you withdraw your application before we have significantly processed it (refer to 50 CFR 13.11(d)).

There is no fee for minor amendments to an existing valid permit (such as updating your name and address information). These minor administrative changes are required under 50 CFR 13.23(c).

The fee requirement does not apply to any federal, tribal, state, or local government agency or to any individual or institution acting on behalf of such agency for the proposed activity. State, tribal and local public colleges/universities do not have to pay a fee because they are affiliated with a government body. Proof of fee exempt status must be included in the application.

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS

To expedite a final decision on your application, you are urged to coordinate with us as soon as possible for guidance in assembling a complete application package. If you are renewing or amending a valid permit, your complete application package must be received at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the valid permit. This time period begins when we receive a complete permit application package and does not include any time required for requesting clarification or additional information about your application.

The time required to process an application for an Incidental Take permit will vary depending on the size, complexity, and impacts of the HCP involved. Procedurally, the most variable factor in application processing is the level of analysis required for the proposed HCP under the National Environmental Policy Act (e.g., whether an application requires preparation of an Environmental Impact Statement, Environmental Assessment, or whether a categorical exclusion applies), although other factors such as public controversy can also affect application processing times. The target processing timeline from when we receive a complete application package to our final decision on a permit application is: up to 3 months for low-effect HCPs, 4 to 6 months for HCPs with an Environmental Assessment, and up to 12 months for HCPs with a 90-day comment period and/or an Environmental Impact Statement. Although not mandated by law or regulation, these targets are adopted as U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS/NOAA Fisheries) policy and all offices are expected to streamline their Incidental Take permit programs, and to meet these targets to the maximum extent practicable.

The information provided in your permit application will be used to evaluate your application for compliance with the Endangered Species Act, its implementing regulations (which may require a 30 to 90 day public comment period), and U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service policy. Receipt and possession of a permit under the Endangered Species Act should be regarded as a privilege, as we must balance permit issuance with our duties to protect and recover listed species.

Up-to-date annual reports and any other required reports under your valid permit(s) must be on file before a permit will be considered for renewal or amendment.

If your activities may affect species under the authority of NMFS/NOAA Fisheries, then you may need to obtain a separate permit from that agency. In addition, we share jurisdiction with

NMFS/NOAA Fisheries for sea turtles (e.g., we evaluate applications for permits to conduct activities impacting sea turtles on land, and NMFS/NOAA Fisheries evaluates applications for permits to conduct activities impacting sea turtles in the marine environment). To apply for a permit to conduct activities with sea turtles in the marine environment or other species under NMFS/NOAA Fisheries jurisdiction, please contact them via their permit web page at <http://www.nmfs.noaa.gov/pr/permits/>

We cannot issue an Incidental Take permit under Section 10(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Endangered Species Act unless you submit a conservation plan that specifies the impacts that are likely to result from the incidental take associated with your activity.

Our general permit regulations at 50 CFR 13.12(a)(9) allow us to collect such other information as we determine that is relevant to the processing of a permit application. Before you submit an application for an Incidental Take permit, we may require that you conduct biological surveys to determine which species and/or habitat would be impacted by the activities sought to be covered under the permit. Biological surveys provide information necessary to develop an adequate HCP, and to assess the biological impacts of the proposed activities. In addition, the information provided in a biological survey can reduce the applicant's risk of take under Section 9 of the Endangered Species Act by ensuring that affected species and/or habitat are identified and appropriately covered under the permit.

You are required to obtain a Scientific Purposes, Enhancement of Propagation or Survival permit (commonly referred to as a Recovery permit) from us before engaging in any biological survey activities that would take listed species. Contact our Ecological Services Field Office closest to the location of your activity to obtain technical assistance in determining the need for both a biological survey and a Recovery permit for your survey activity. The contact information for our Ecological Services Field Offices can be found on the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service's office directory web page at <http://offices.fws.gov/directory/listofficemap.html>

If a biological survey is required, you will need to send us your complete Recovery permit application package at least 3 months prior to commencement of survey activities to facilitate processing of your Recovery permit application. The Recovery permit application is designated as U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service form # 3-200-55.

We maintain a list of Recovery permittees (such as biological consultants) who have authorized the release of their contact information to third parties for conducting biological surveys on a contract basis. This list is provided to the public at the discretion of each of U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service Regional Office as time and workload allow. Please be aware that this list does not represent an endorsement by us of any particular permittee.

If you are not applying as an individual, but as a business, corporation, institution, or non-Federal public agency (block B. on page 1 of the application), the person to whom the permit will be issued (e.g., the landowner, president, director, executive director, or executive officer) is legally responsible for implementing the permit. Although other people under the direct control of the permittee (e.g., employees, contractors, consultants) receive third party take authorization in their capacity as designees of the permittee, the individual named as the permittee ultimately is legally responsible for the permit and any activities carried out under the permit except as otherwise limited in the case of permits issued to State or local government entities under 50 CFR 13.25(d).

If you wish to coordinate the processing of this permit application through an authorized agent, and to have that agent represent you as the primary contact with us, check the box below. Sign (in blue ink) and date the authorization statement, and provide contact information for your authorized agent.
